COMMODORE'S REPORT

The first snow of the season came this Thanksgiving week and put the Yacht Club to sleep under its soft white blanket. Old Man Winter came along to put his seal of approval on all the last minute chores.

Although the Club was left in good condition, decorations having been removed from the Commodore's Ball very nicely, there were many other tasks to be finished. The porch furniture was moved inside, boats stored for the winter, the water system drained and lights and telephone disconnected.

You will also be pleased to know that the new windows have all been painted with two coats of good white paint on the outside and all window frames and sashes have been stained on the inside covering up most of the marks on the old frames.

All of this helps to give the Club a more ship-shape appearance, but it also helps to deplete the bank balance. Labor, paint, stains, and general repairs add up to a big bill very quickly.

As you remember, the middle tables at the Club were poorly lighted for our evening parties, when tables were needed. So we have put three new lights down the middle of the auditorium, all operated from a switch in the snack bar. I mention some of these items so that you will know when you read the Treasurer's report, why the cash on hand is not very big.

The only thing which did not get done this Fall was the bringing in of the buoys. The "Jolly Roger" promised to get them in but due to motor trouble, had to return to Suttons Bay with our buoys still floating in Omena Bay. We will see what happens to them during the winter.

You were very generous in the past season and gave the Club money to buy new Formica-top tables for our dinners, and new chairs which are needed at most of our parties. Your Commodore can report that the tables are now at the Club and are all in a steel frame on casters, so that when they are not in use they can easily be stored and rolled out of the way. The chairs have not been purchased yet because we have not decided which type is best suited to our needs. But we expect to have them on hand when we open next summer.

The O. T. Y. C. has become an important item in the lives of the people who are fortunate enough to be in Omena during the summer, but we are not utilizing the Club nearly enough. Could we not use the Club more frequently than just on Wednesday and Saturday evenings? Could we not make arrangements to have the Club open every day, conducting bridge tournaments, ping-pong matches, croquet, etc., so that we could make more use of our fine property? Any ideas from the members would be appreciated.

Since our Club was organized as a Yacht Club it seems as though our yachting activities need to be stimulated. We have not planned and executed a full yachting program for several years. It is my hope that we may secure the services of one of our adults to work with the young people with the idea of creating greater interest in sailing. You will receive a questionnaire from the Board of Directors asking you to give us your ideas as to what you want in the way of yachting facilities.

For a young Club, we have come a long way in a few years, but there is no reason why we shouldn't accomplish even more in the years ahead. Your Commodore appreciates all that each of you has done to make the past season so successful. Every job, no matter how small helps to make our organization an active one.

Looking forward to an even bigger year next summer, the Commodore and his Lady wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

George Smith, Commodore
Omena Traverse Yacht Club.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of the Omena Traverse Yacht Club for the year 1956, was called to order by Commodore Smith, at the Club House August 22. The Secretary's report was read and approved. Mr. Ayars then gave a detailed Treasurer's report, stating that at this date we have a total cash account of $2,539.46.

Commodore Smith then gave an account of the improvements to the Club, which have been made during the last year, with special reference to our windows. The Commodore made the suggestion that perhaps we could have more activities for Club members such as croquet, pingpong, etc.

We then started voting on the proposals which had been posted during the year in the Club House.

Number one: That we raise the initiation fee to $100.00. Mrs. Gleason moved that the Board devise a plan for re-instatement of members and that the initiation fee be $100.00 for new members only. It was seconded by Mr. Abbott and defeated by a vote of 16 to 14.

Mr. Finn then moved that we postpone for one year, Mrs. Gleason's motion, for the purpose of amending it. This was seconded by Mr. DeVore and defeated 19 to 10.

Mrs. Gleason then withdrew her original motion.

Proposals numbered two, three and four,

That we limit membership.

That we make Junior memberships a must at the age of 14, and regular memberships a must at the age of 21 or when married.

And, that we raise the dues to $50.00, were all tabled.

Proposal number five:

That we make addition to the dock so we can handle more boats. Mr. Farrell moved that the Secretary send a questionnaire to all members requesting information about what their needs will be for their boats, whether they will need moorings at the Club, what fee they would consider fair, etc. This was seconded by Mr. DeVore and carried.

The Commodore called for new business.

Mrs. Gleason moved that the Commodore appoint a committee to study the By-Laws and consider suggestions for revisions that would simplify voting, etc. This was seconded by Mr. Farrell and carried.

Mrs. Foltz announced that one of her house guests had noticed our shabby American flag and had sent us a new one.

Mrs. Gleason proposed that there be a junior board or council, the head of which would be an ex-officio member of the senior board.

Mr. DeVore then cast the ballot of the nominating committee as follows:

Commodore George Smith
Vice-Commodore Humphrey Jackson
Rear Commodore Joe Alcorn
Secretary Marilyn Flett
Treasurer Stewart Ayars
Directors at large Mrs. Carmichael
Mrs. Foltz Mrs. Renz
Mr. Finn Mr. Wheeler

Mrs. Gleason moved that the members accept the nominations as read, seconded by Mrs. Feely and carried. Mr. DeVore moved for a vote of thanks to the Commodore and the Board, which was given enthusiastically.

Mr. DeVore moved that we adjourn, seconded by Mr. Flett and carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Marilyn Flett, Secretary.

WEDDINGS, WEDDINGS AND MORE WEDDINGS.

This year has set all records for our younger set so far as weddings go. The first wedding to take place was that of Mona Johanning who was married on September 2 at the Presbyterian Church in Omena to Donald B. Gordon. The newlyweds are now living in Indianapolis where Don is attending classes in the Business School of Indiana University. Mona is now working in the Purdue Extension office. New address is 514 E. 20th Street, Apt. 2.

One of the largest weddings took place at Omena's historic church on Saturday, October 13, when Carolin Deborah Smith and William Andrew Renz were married in a double ring ceremony. A perfect day, sunny and warm provided a setting which will long be remembered by all who attended. Music was furnished by Dr. Earl Moore, Maid of honor was Mary Helen Ayars, bridesmaids were Holly Renz and Barbara Ann Keck.

John N. Kramig was Bill's best man and ushers were Preston Smith, Donald Mayhall and Henry Mikul. The ceremony was performed by Dean Francis J. Foley of Traverse City.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Omena Heights home of Commodore and Mrs. Smith at which 150 guests were received.

Many out of town guests including relatives of the couple and O. T. Y. C. members attended the wedding. Highlights of the reception were the cutting of the wedding cake and throwing of the bridal bouquet which was caught by Holly Renz.

Following a plane trip to Nassau, they will make their home in Cincinnati.

Announcement has just been received of the wedding plans of Jean McLean of Traverse City. Jean is to be married December 15 to Jack Ahart of Waukegan. Both Jean and Jack are at present attending Northwestern Michigan College. The wedding will take place at the Congregational Church in Traverse City. The couple is planning a honeymoon in Florida and Nassau.

VITAL STATISTICS.

Jeffry William Linn arrived October 29, 1956. Alice and John and the family are thrilled as would be expected, for what can be more wonderful than the first son, unless of course, it is the first daughter?

COMMODORE'S BALL.

Arriving at the O. T. Y. C. the evening of August 25th, members found themselves surrounded with colorful pennants, flags, boats, and it was apparent that "Regatta" was the theme of the ball.

Music of the orchestra teased first one, then another, onto the floor. Seen at the dance and leading, the Grand March, were Commodore and Mrs. Smith, Rear Commodore and Mrs. Alcorn, former Commodore and Mrs. DeVore, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Ayars, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crampton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johanning, Mrs. Janet Wagner, Mrs. Hazel Taylor, Mrs. Blanch Clark, Marilyn Flett, Gary Keyes and Mary Keithy, Stewart Crampton and Holly Renz, Duane Kalember and Robin Fisher, Dave Jackson and Betsy Lyon, Bill Renz and Carolin Smith.

Others spotted during the evening were Carolyn Gleason, Mary Helen Ayars, Sue Barker, Jeannie MacLean, and Perk Smith.

Awards to the winners of the races were made at intermission. First place winner was Mary Helen Ayars, second, Carolyn Gleason, and third Margie Lyon.

Refreshments were served during the evening as guests sat at cabaret tables around the ballroom. The party was one of the best of the summer and a wonderful close to a busy and happy season. Special thanks to Carolyn Gleason, Mrs. Gleason, Mrs. Johanning and their fine committee who decorated the Club and arranged for the music and refreshments.

Music was furnished by the Denbrack Trio of Northport.

The first big social event of the season following the opening Turkey Dinner at the Omena-Traverse Yacht Club was the gala "Circus Party" held Saturday, July 14th. Decorations were supervised by Harriette Underwood and Humphrey Jackson who, with the able assistance of the young people and other members sketched, painted, and decorated the Club House appropriately with animals, circus performers, streamers, balloons, and real sawdust for the ring.

Music of the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus Band filled the Club House as members began to assemble for an evening of fun. Costumes were worn by many members who came as bearded ladies, clowns, freaks, animals and circus performers. Circus suckers and balloons were given to the younger guests as favors. Betsy Lyon was in charge of music; Marie Louise Bassler was ticket-taker and favor giver; Pop Corn Concession was handled by Jane Jackson and Frances Lyon and sold by Eddy Lyon; The hot-dog concession was handled by Lestra Saxton and Jack Herrington. Pink lemonade was sold by Ruth Ayars; Donuts were sold by Harriette White. The side show of freak driftwood animals was prepared by Jackson, Jackson, Underwood & Jackson. Madam Hatski, palmist was Harriette White.

The evening started with a Grand Parade of all those in costume. Judges were Commodore Smith, Genevieve Herrick,

Mrs. Robert Alcorn, Fred Schaefer and Dave DeVore. Prizes were awarded to Peter VanPelt, an African Explorer, funniest costume; Six legged mule as best animal costume was won by Mary Helen Ayars, Margie Lyon and Betsy Lyon; and the fanciest costume award was won by Harriette Underwood as a Drum Major. Many other costumes were humorous and colorful and added a festive note to the party.

Following the Grand Parade, came the Kiddie Acts. The Strong Man, Chris Verdery, gave a demonstration of his power by lifting weights; the white mouse and trained cat of the Waldo Abbott children was one of the high lights of the circus. The novelty dance of the trained dog, Mrs. Underwood and daughter concluded this part of the program.

The third part of the program consisted of groups of spectators who were called by number to the ring where instructions were given for them to act out circus acts for the others to guess. Among these were Clowns, Trapeze Artists, Sword Swallowers, Lion Tamers, Bare Back Riders, Elephant Act, Man Shot from Cannon, Tight Rope Artists, Dog and Pony Act, Tumbling the Tampoline, Equestrians, Jugglers and Unicycles.

Attendance of over 100 proves that the membership supports activities of this type and has fun doing so.

GREENWICH VILLAGE PARTY.

One of the gayest and pleasantest evenings in Omena was the Greenwich Village Party at the O. T. Y. C. on July 21st. As one entered the Club, strains of violin and piano music greeted one's ears. Colorful awnings hung over the sidewalks of "Club Cliche" and "Club Pierre". Blue and red plaid tablecloths added color to the scene which was enhanced by the candlelight of Harriette White's famous bottles.

Artists painted in the street, miniature watercolors of scenes in and around Omena were made by Eva Bauer, framed and sold as customers ordered them. Melvin Pike's famous smoked and seasoned hot-dogs created a sensation of gastronomic appeal. Waiters, Gary Canatsie, Eddy Lyon and Dave Jackson hustled about taking orders from the customers who sauntered in to their reservations at tables. Cigarettes were sold by attractive Betsy Lyon appropriately bedecked with ribboned tray. Each package of cigarettes had a Club Burgee on the wrapper.

Menus created interest because of their figured covers and clever French entrees. These were later sold and autographed as souvenirs of the party.

The floor show started with a sister team duet by Eva Bauer and Gwen Pike who sang "The Wayward Wind" and "Can You Find It In Your Heart". Their numbers were followed by the violin of Mozelle Sawyer, accomplished violinist and concert artist playing The Emperors Waltz, the Barcarole and Moritat, Theme song of the Three Penny Opera. Mozelle was accompanied on the piano by Gwen Pike.

The Wandering Minstrel, Eben Barker, played and sang requests for the guests and was a huge success as he pleased the patrons.

Bill Renz took pictures upon request with his Polaroid Camera. He was busy nearly the whole evening filling orders. John Fisher played his own accompaniment on the guitar and sang several numbers, one of which was "Davy Crockett", the chorus of which was sung by young and old.

The final act was the Barbershop Quartette which sang "Wait Till the Sun Shines Nellie" and "Old McDonald Had A Farm" in which everyone joined. The quartette comprised of Waldo Abbott Jr., John Roth, John Lynn and Bill Huff attired in gay caps and straw hats, canes and Bermudas sang "While Strolling In The Park One Day" as Commodore and Helen Smith started the stroll each picking a partner as they led the choosing of more and more partners, each in turn until the entire floor was filled with couples.

The rest of the evening was filled with social dancing. Especial praise and appreciation goes to Gwen Pike, who as mistress of ceremonies gave a professional touch to another party which will long be remembered as outstanding in the way of true entertainment by members of the O. T. Y. C. and their guests.

Credit must also be given to the group who prepared the decorations including Margie, Betsy, and Eddy Lyon, Dave Jackson, Marjorie Renz, Gwen Pike and to the committee responsible for preparing the refreshments, Melvin Pike, Marjorie Renz, Mary Louise Gleason and Marjorie Hill and to Mary Louise Bassler and Humphrey Jackson and Stewart Ayars for assisting.
